

How to reset your filter error after your service change – Logic26S

1. Hold the Enter button down until you see service #1
2. Push the up arrow to Factory – Hit Enter
3. Push the up arrow and put a 6 on the line – Then hit enter
4. Put all numbers to 6 until you have all 6 numbers as 6
5. Scroll down to number 10, oil filter hours – Enter
6. Select your first filter – Enter
7. You will see reset flashing, hit enter and it will be reset
8. Do this to each filter and your oil
9. After resetting each one go back to home screen by using the reset button
10. If light is still on push reset again to clear faults

First time changing

1. Hold the Enter button down until you see service #1
2. Push the up arrow to Factory – Hit Enter
3. Push the up arrow and put a 6 on the line – Then hit enter
4. Put all numbers to 6 until you have all 6 numbers as 6
5. Scroll down to number 10, oil filter hours – Enter
6. Select your COF-Oil Filter – Enter
7. Use down arrow to set 600 – Set will be blinking
8. Use up arrow to set to 2000 – enter
9. Repeat step 7 and 8 on your C—Hoil
10. Select your COF-Oil Filter – Enter
11. You will see reset flashing, hit enter and it will be reset
12. Do this to each filter and your oil
13. After resetting each one go back to home screen by using the reset button
14. If light is still on push reset again to clear faults